Resourcing Champions

SOLA Technology is your go to partner to find premium, world-class contract or permanent talent within your niche technology disciplines

SOLA Technology is your go to partner to find premium, world-class contract or permanent talent within your niche technology disciplines.

Since our incorporation in 2005, our raft of experience and expertise has put us at the top of our game and one step ahead in a fast paced and continuously evolving technology market.

With offices in London, Dubai and Munich we have an unrivalled network of dynamic global talent we can connect you with, to provide the best technology resourcing solutions for your business in a fully compliant manner.

Our network of talented individuals are mid to senior level and always a cut above the rest. People of this calibre are often not available on the open market which is where you need an experienced and well networked partner to identify and secure less accessible talent.

Our Consultants are Subject Matter Experts and our sure footed responsiveness means that we can source the right individuals or assemble the right teams for your business quickly & effectively.

Your Resourcing Champions

At SOLA Technology we concentrate on specific technology niches and hire bright and perceptive individuals. Our Consultants are Subject Matter Experts within their verticals and are fully integrated into the technology communities they represent. They stay at the front of changing industry and technology specific trends bringing our Clients the most up to date knowledge of the market.

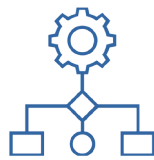

We stay ahead of complex regulatory Employment Law, Taxation and Data Protection changes, maintaining a compliant solution whilst helping our Clients and Candidates navigate an evolving landscape. At SOLA Technology we pride ourselves in developing innovative solutions and driving knowledge sharing initiatives to help our Clients and Candidates stay ahead of the curve. We bring our Clients knowledge, expertise and resources to address these changing rules, today and in the future as their businesses expand.

Our Team

Tech savvy and dedicated, our Consultants invest time building and maintaining unique candidate relationships within focused technology sectors. This knowledge of the market and skills availability allows them to respond rapidly to your requirements and quickly source the best fitting candidates for your business. Our proactive approach and high service levels mean that we increasingly work with a significant number of candidates exclusively.

Our Approach with Internal Recruitment

A number of our major Clients have internal functions and we welcome the opportunity to build effective relationships with internal & in-house recruitment teams. With the focus on a mutually desired outcome of sourcing the best talent for the Client, we add value by working in a collaborative, open manner and sharing information to achieve this goal.

Our Clients

We are immensely proud of our Client relationships and have a track record in building strong, lasting partnerships. We can work as your exclusive technology resourcing partner or act as an extension of your own internal team to support and predict the resourcing demands of your business therefore helping you stay one step ahead.

We are trusted technology resourcing partners with Hitachi, Dell EMC, Capita, Redscan, Badoo, Gotham Digital Science and Fujitsu amongst others.

Our Network is Your Network

Our network is special, not run-of-the mill and we've taken the time to grow & nurture it. This network combined with our meticulous selection process and deep understanding of the ever changing technology market means we can easily place the right talent at the right level of seniority, at the right price for your business, keeping you ahead of the competition.

Don't just take our word for it.
Here's what some of our Clients and Candidates say about us:

"The team at SOLA has always provided an exceptional level of service, they understand the value of working in partnership with their Clients and they always deliver. I would have absolutely no hesitation in recommending them to clients."

James Steventon – CEO, Web Technology Group (WTG)

"I just wanted to take time out to show my appreciation for the excellent response I've had from SOLA Group to fix my immediate resource issues. If all our partners gave us this level of commitment and support I would sleep better at night. Thanks again."

Tony Reid – CTO, EMEA Financial Services Business Unit at Hitachi Data Systems

"SOLA are enthusiastic, professional and results driven. It's been a real pleasure working with them and I look forward to working with them again in future."

Lee Hendricks – Head of Pre-Sales at Fujitsu UK and Ireland

"It's been amazing relationship working with SOLA over the last 6 years and thanks for making it such a pleasant experience. Contract extensions, payments etc. everything was taken care of in an amazing way. Hope to work with you again in future."
